MINISTER OF FOREIGN AND CARICOM AFFAIRS COMMEMORATES FIESTA NACIONAL DE ESPAÑA, THE NATIONAL DAY OF SPAIN

PORT OF SPAIN: 14TH OCTOBER, 2024

Senator the Honourable Dr. Amery Browne, Minister of Foreign and CARICOM Affairs delivers remarks at a reception held to celebrate Fiesta Nacional de España, the National Day of Spain on 11th October, 2024.

Senator the Honourable Dr. Amery Browne, Minister of Foreign and CARICOM Affairs and Her Excellency María Cristina Pérez Gutiérrez, Ambassador of the Kingdom of Spain toasts on the occasion of Fiesta Nacional de España, the National Day of Spain on 11th October, 2024.

Senator the Honourable Dr. Amery Browne, Minister of Foreign and CARICOM Affairs joined Her Excellency María Cristina Pérez Gutiérrez, newly-appointed Ambassador of the Kingdom of Spain to the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago in the commemoration of Fiesta Nacional de España, the National Day of Spain, at a reception held on 11th October, 2024, at the Ambassador's residence.

Minister Browne took the opportunity to welcome the Ambassador to Trinidad and Tobago and highlighted the importance of Spain as a partner in development. The Minister took note of the efforts by Spain to recast its historical relationship with Trinidad and Tobago and celebrated the numerous areas in which the two countries are aligned. There has also been a renewal of the relations between the Caribbean Community and Spain through the signature, in July 2024, of a new agreement for technical cooperation, food and nutrition security, health, climate change, and disaster risk reduction for the next five years.
